A Busy Sunday

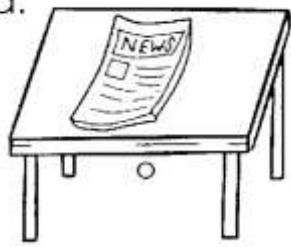

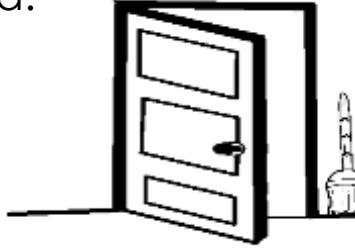

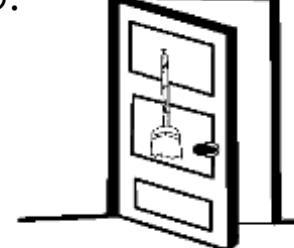

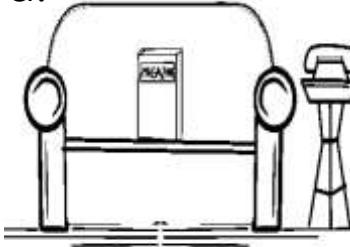

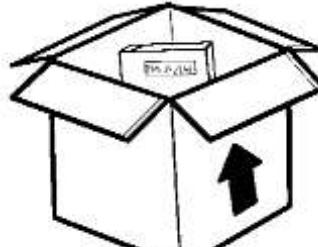

by: Maricar P. Vital

One Sunday morning, mother decided to clean the house. She asked her daughter Karla if she could help her. Since she did not have anything to do on that day, she helped her mother clean their house.

After eating breakfast, mother started cleaning the living area. She put the newspaper under the table. She asked Karla to get the broom hanged behind the door. Karla swept the floor and dusted the flower vase on the center table. Some of the magazines that were in front of the television rack were put in the box.

After an hour of cleaning, finally the living area is spick and span. Then mother started to clean the kitchen wares over the kitchen cabinet. While mother was busy cleaning, Karla prepared tuna sandwich and ice-cold orange juice for their snacks. Mother sat beside Karla and she told her that she was tired but happy as well because they were able to finish cleaning the house.
