Quarter 4 – Module 8:

Read Words with Diphthongs

Introductory Message

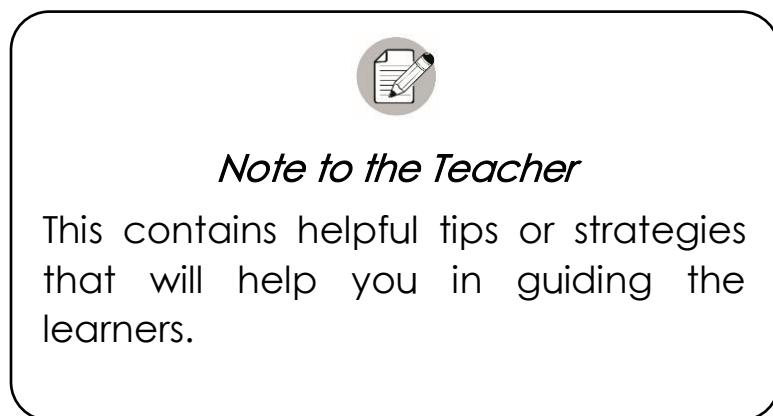

For the facilitator:

Welcome to the English 3 Alternative Delivery Mode (ADM) Module on Read Words with Diphthongs!

This module was collaboratively designed, developed and reviewed by educators both from public and private institutions to assist you, the teacher or facilitator in helping the learners meet the standards set by the K to 12 Curriculum while overcoming their personal, social, and economic constraints in schooling.

This learning resource hopes to engage the learners into guided and independent learning activities at their own pace and time. Furthermore, this also aims to help learners acquire the needed 21st century skills while taking into consideration their needs and circumstances.

In addition to the material in the main text, you will also see this box in the body of the module:

As a facilitator, you are expected to orient the learners on how to use this module. You also need to keep track of the learners' progress while allowing them to manage their own learning. Furthermore, you are expected to encourage and assist the learners as they do the tasks included in the module.

For the learner:

Troy the Joyful Boy with a Toy
Tristan June C. Intong

One day, Troy played by himself with lots of toys. He was very happy. He has no brothers and sisters to play with at home.

So, Troy requested his parents to buy new toys for him every other month. He asked no other favors from his parents but for them to bring home some toys.

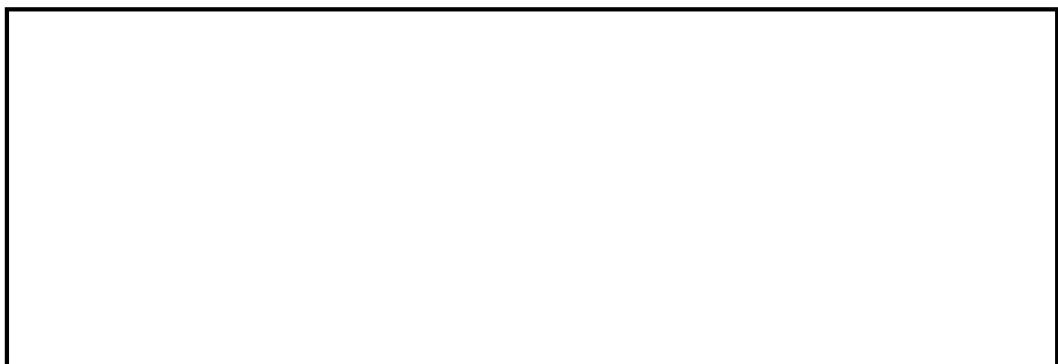

The next day, Troy hugged his parents and he realized how thankful and joyful he was.

What is It

How are you feeling right now after reading lots of words? I hope you find them well! Now, to give you more insights about what this module covers, please spare time to read and understand.

What is a diphthong?

A diphthong is a sound in which the tongue changes position to produce the sound of two vowels.

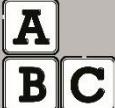

In other words, it is a single sound produced when two vowels (one dominant in duration and stress, and one reduced in duration and stress), are together in sequence.

Example: oy: boy, toy, soy, joy

oi: boil, soil, coin, point

ou: out, house, cloud,

ow: bow, cow, owl

Loloy Who was Annoyed

Tristan June C. Intong

One day, there was a boy named Loloy. He was bothered and annoyed by any noise.

The sound of coins, the flushing of the toilet, the horn of a bus, the sound of a cow, the noise of the town and even the sound of his own voice.

When he heard a noise, he cried.

The next day, he shouted. "This is no fun!"

"This is stealing my joy!" he added.

When he got bored, he decided to enjoy the noise.

Directions. Read again the story. Identify the words with diphthongs (oy, oi, ou, ow) and classify them accordingly. Write them in the box provided.
